A bit about our language...

The “New” IPE

Interprofessional Practice and Education
We believe high-functioning teams can improve the experience, outcomes and costs of health care.

National Center for Interprofessional Practice and Education is studying and advancing the way stakeholders in health work and learn together.

National Center Vision

National Center Funders

- Health Resources and Services Administration Cooperative Agreement Award No. UE5HP25067
- Robert Wood Johnson Foundation
- Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation
- Josiah Macy Jr. Foundation
To provide the leadership, evidence and resources needed to guide the nation on the use of interprofessional practice and education as a way to enhance the experience of health care, improve population health, and reduce the overall cost of care.
The Nexus: Our Vision for Health

- Improving quality of experience for patients, families, communities and learners
- Sharing responsibility for achieving health outcomes and improving education
- Reducing cost and adding value in health care delivery and education

Research and Resources
Modern Care - Improved Outcomes & Lower Costs

Changing service delivery to meet 21st century needs through an emphasis on quality care that encourages innovate team-based and interprofessional approaches.

Our programs serve as a catalyst to advance changes in health professions training that are responsive to the evolving needs of the health care system.

- In Academic Year 2013-14, 12 BHW programs had an interprofessional focus. Within those programs 1,315 clinical training sites were engaged in interprofessional team-based care.
FY 2015/2016 Funding Opportunity Highlights

Principles:

Incentives to motivate higher value care

Alternative payment models

Greater teamwork and integration

More effective coordination of providers across settings

Greater attention to population health

Harness the power of information to improve care for patients

What will be the impact on workforce of Secretary Burwell’s announcement on value-based payment goals?

EVALUATING INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION AND COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE: What Should I Consider When Selecting a Measurement Tool?
By igniting the IPE Movement today, we are nurturing tomorrow’s interprofessional leaders of health systems and health professions education organizations including the National Center for Interprofessional Practice and Education.

And insuring that new models of care are no longer “new”.
Let the party begin!

Hat designed by The Gift Niche

The IPE movement is in motion…

- Collaborating Across Borders hosts from Minneapolis, Halifax, Tucson, Vancouver and Roanoke
- CAB V planning committee members
- Team members of the Nexus Innovations Network and their partnering organizations
- Macy Faculty Scholars
- Robert Wood Johnson Foundation scholars
- HRSA IPE grantees
- Grantees implementing interprofessional practice and education programs
- Funders of interprofessional practice and education efforts
The IPE movement is in motion…

- Leaders and teams of centers of interprofessional practice and education implementing large-scale transformation
- Accreditors who have written standards incorporating interprofessional practice and education
- AIHC and CIHC board members (past and present)
- Organizations advocating for interprofessional practice and education
- Individuals with a National Center profile
- National Center staff and advisors
- Individuals who are committed to taking what they have learned at CAB V to implement at home
Activating the IPE Movement:
Make your commitment today!

- Create a profile on the Resource Center – and encourage a friend to do the same
- Contribute a presentation, tool, publication or other resource to the growing collection
- Share your experience with an existing resource by making a comment or posing a question
- Mentor a colleague or student with interprofessional interests
- Submit your scholarly work to IPEC MedEd Portal for peer review
- Become an ambassador of the National Center to share the latest evidence, resources and services with the growing community
- Submit a story or blog about your IPE journey to share with the National Center community
- Define how your interprofessional effort is incorporating actionable measurement to facilitate knowledge, evidence and sustainable change
- Submit your interprofessional program outcomes to disciplinary venues for broader engagement, dialogue and acceptance
- Join the American Interprofessional Health Collaborative as a charter member
- Publish, Publish, Publish!
